MONTREAL INTERNATIONAL CHILDREN'S FILM FESTIVAL
THE 13TH EDITION ENDS IN BEAUTY

Montreal, Monday March 8, 2010 – The Montreal International Children's Film Festival, known under its French acronym FIFEM, ended yesterday when the Children Jury and the International Jury, presided by the Canadian actress Catherine Trudeau, have given their awards. A 13th edition attended by more than 13 000 young filmgoers and their parents was a great success, so were the parallel activities: school screenings, workshops, and the outdoors event Attache ta tuque!

FIFEM 2010 AWARDS

- 1) People's Choice Award – Brendan and the Secret of Kells, by Tomm Moore, Ireland / Belgium / France 2009

CHILDREN JURY

- 2) Award « Place aux familles » – The Crocodiles (Vorstadtkrokodile), by Christian Ditter, Germany 2009
- 3) Special Jury Award – Rafiki (Bestevenner), by Christian Lo, Norway 2009

INTERNATIONAL JURY

- 4) Grand Prix de Montréal – Eep! (Iep!), by Ellen Smit, The Netherlands / Belgium 2009
- 5) Special Jury Award – Rafiki (Bestevenner), by Christian Lo, Norway 2009

Again this year, the public was at the rendez-vous to the delight of the organizers. The Mayor of the district Rosemont - La Petite-Patrie has also confirmed the financial support of the district for next year. It's an appointment for the 14th edition to be held as usual during Spring Break 2011. Until then, visit the photo gallery website www.fifem.com and send us your photos, comments or suggestions at info@fifem.com

The FIFEM is a presentation of the Caisses Populaires Desjardins de Rosemont, De Lorimier and Préfontaine-Hochelaga, in collaboration with the district of Rosemont - La Petite-Patrie, Tele-Quebec and Cinema Beaubien.
